NO STAND OFF FOR BAR GOODS

SALOONKEEPERS ADVISED THAT CREDIT IS CUT TO HALF CASH WITH ORDER

Dealers in wet goods and drummers for whiskey houses received a surprise yesterday when they found in their mail a circular letter advising them that on and after June 18 all credits formerly extended would be wiped out. The circular reads: "Owing to existing conditions and to the difficulty of obtaining goods in our line, and as we have to pay cash at greatly advanced prices for whatever we are able to buy, we are compelled to advise our customers and friends that from the above date and until further notice our terms on all sales will be one-half spot cash and the balance 30 days net without discount or rebate. Hoping that you will adjust yourself to these conditions which have been forced upon us, we remain, etc., etc."

The announcement was not known to a couple of drummers who arrived by the morning train, but when they wired their houses for instructions they were told flatly that all orders contrary to the foregoing would have to be canceled.

The local association also sprang a surprise on local patrons by posting a new scale of prices from which there will be no deviation. The changes are chiefly from one bit drinks to 15 cents straight and all milk drinks at two bits each. No change occurred in bar whisky.

PROFIT SHARING PLAN ON BUCKEYE

A profit sharing plan is being arranged by Manager Balliet at the Buckeye mine. All employees who wish may take advantage of the opportunity. Each man or group of miners is virtually given a lease for a time upon anything he opens, in such blocks of ground as he has assigned to him. The lease extends until the gross production of the block reaches a stipulated amount. Meanwhile the company furnishes everything and on each payday, allows the leasers to draw a stipulated price per foot for all dead work done, as pay for his labor. If the leaser fails to make good with his lease, he has been paid for all the work he does, and owes the company nothing. If the leaser does make good and reaches the stipulated amount the amount drawn for labor is deducted as soon as his profits as a leaser exceed the amounts drawn, but not before.

In this way a big ledge of low grade ore is to be developed. This is the Eagle ledge which extends to the southeast under the Eagle claim.

ROAD BUILDING HELPS AMERICA IN THE FIELD

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

BEHIND THE BRITISH LINES IN FRANCE, June—A considerable share in the success and rapidity with which the British armies were able this spring to follow up the Germans as they fell back from the Somme and Arras battlefields is officially attributed to the building by the British of innumerable military roads which have been completed on the heels of the German retreat.

The officer principally responsible for maintaining this branch of communications, under the direction of Sir Eric Geddes, the deputy director general of munitions supply, is Brigadier General H. P. Maybury, whose official title is manager and chief engineer of the army roads board. He is in command of an army of road makers recruited from towns and villages in Great Britain where they were engaged in similar work. Their number now runs well into five figures. These men, although almost without regular army training, are all organized in regiments with officers on the regular army model and are equipped with modern plants and the best material.

MRS. R. C. STODDARD DIES AT HER HOME IN RENO

ITALIAN WOMEN WANT TO GET GREATER FREEDOM

(By Associated Press.)

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Vaudeville, and a splendid picture will be the attraction at the Butler tonight. The vaudeville will consist of a high class musical act presented by Miss Roma Lindsay and Miss Pearl Irvine, which will be a treat to every music lover in Tonopah. Miss Lindsay will be favorably remembered, having appeared at the Butler on one other occasion at which she distinguished herself, and is now ably supported by Miss Irvine, who is also a musical artist of rare ability. The feature picture is "Skinner's Bubble," a sequel to "Skinner's Dress Suit," which made such a hit here a short time ago. Bryant Washburn, who plays the lead, with the same cast, simply repeats his great success in this production. It simply adds another chapter to the life of Skinner and his adoring wife, Honey, which was so admirably launched in the first production, yet those who were so unfortunate as to miss the dress suit episode, will not be confused in viewing "Skinner's Bubble." There is no serial link between the two.

The Butler is always cool and comfortable, and this production runs only an hour and twelve minutes, and we are absolutely sure it will please you. The latest release of Pathe News will also be shown. Tomorrow Valessa Suratt, in a picturization of Rider Haggard's famous novel, "She."

LIBERTY THEATRE

Today: "The Seventh Sin," the last of the "Seven Deadly Sins." The seventh sin is the deadliest of all, for it is the cause of all the others. Only by seeing "The Seventh Sin" can you learn its nature. Shirley Mason has passed through fires of temptation and reaches the most withering blaze of all. If she fights through this, happiness forever lies ahead. The strength she has gained in her struggles against six terrible temptations helps her to combat the seventh. New adventures come to her, her old friendships are renewed and one after another her friends help her. Look at these stars, all in "The Seventh Sin": Ann Murdock, Nance O'Neill, Holbrook Blinn, Charlotte Walker, H. B. Warner, Shirley Mason and George Le Guere. "The Life of Tree Animals," taken from Dittmar's Living Book of Nature.

PYROMANIAC IS HELD FOR RECENT FIRES

S. S. Errel, Sr., who since the big fire on Main street on Saturday morning has been suspected of being a firebug, and who is said to have made many strange remarks and predictions regarding fires, was placed under arrest after he had been closely watched for several days.

Sheriff Ingalls yesterday communicated with the Nevada hospital for mental diseases, from which Errel was recently released and officials taken into custody.

Errel's connection with any of the recent fires has not been established. It is understood, but the authorities have decided that it is not safe to allow him to be at large in the town. His arrest has been considered since Saturday, but the officials refrained from placing him in custody until they were reasonably certain he could be held, the telegram from Reno finally deciding their course.—Goldfield Tribune.

LOST TRAPSHOOTING PRIZE BUT WON A BRIDE

Miss Madeline M. Blackwell, of St. Louis and Walter G. Warren, prosperous young rancher of Wabuska, were married at the Congregational parsonage yesterday morning by Rev. W. D. Trout, says the Reno Gazette.

The wedding followed a romance of several months which was begun last summer when Warren, who is an expert at the traps, took part in the Grand American Handicap held in that city. He failed to win the prize at the traps but instead won Miss Blackwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren left for a honeymoon on the coast and will then spend some weeks at Lake Tahoe following which they will go to Wabuska to make their home.
